I believe the following should be included on the Agenda for the DD/S Staff Meeting, 5 December.

The CIA Career Council, at its 15 November meeting, considered nominees for the Harvard University Advanced Management Course and the Armed Forces Staff College. None of the DD/S candidates for the Advanced Management Course were selected by the Career Council. Mr. [REDACTED] of the Office of Training was selected as the first choice for the September 1957 course at the Armed Forces Staff College and Mr. [REDACTED] of the Office of Communications was selected as the first choice for the October 1957 course of the AFSC. Selections of the Career Council will be forwarded for final action by the DCI.
